JUDGMENT

Radhakrishnan, J.

On a direction given by this court, petitioner was reinstated in service and later retired from service. Challenge was against the suspension order and now no further reliefs are called for. Writ Appeal therefore has become infructuous. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that a direction may be given to the Vigilance Court to expedite the matter pending before it. Appellant may move that Court for appropriate orders.

With the above observation, Writ Appeal is dismissed as infructuous.
